A meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Fair Association was held yesterday afternoon. The premium list was revised, a drawing for a new lithograph was approved, and a number of other routine matters attended to. It was decided to charge $3 a season for driving in the grounds, $150 a season for riding, and twenty-five cents a single ride or drive. It was resolved to again strictly enforce the order forbidding all games of chance on the ground. The Committee on Grounds, Messrs. Exley, Bieberson and Hook, was instructed to visit the grounds and locate the new stables and other buildings.

next meeting.

Small pox bills to the amount of $602 03 were recommended for payment. The Federal Government has agreed to pay $5 per day for twenty-six days, the length of time the small pox patient remained in the custody of the city. This sum of $130 is included in the amount recommended to Conneil for payment, and after being paid, requisition for the refunding of the same will be made on the Government. The bills for the pest house, amounting to $351 10, were sent to Conneil for reference to the proper committee, as the Committee on Claims is not positive that this matter belongs under its jurisdiction.

The principal bills incident to the smallpox sfair have been presented, and the cost of the whole matter to the city will not fail much short of $1,000.

The Committee on Fire Department was called last night to act on a proposition of Chief Healy. Clerk Fee read a communication from the Chief recommending the abolition of the extra men system now in vogue, and advising the employment of nine regular men at a salary of $50 per month, two at each engine house, one each at the Seventh and Eighth ward hose house and one at the chemical angine house.

Mr. Healy called attention to the fact that only three extra men were present at the late fire in the Bon Ton store, and that one regular man, on whose appearance he could count, was preferable to all the extra men. It seemed to be the general opinion of members of the committee that it would be better to await the purchase of new employment of new men. The needs of the department in the matter of new engines were then discussed. It was stated that the Atlantic and Vigilant engines had been in use many years, and that the money spent on them for repairs would go far toward the purchase of new engines. A motion to add to the estimate for this year's appropriation the cost of a new engine, for the Eighth ward, was carried, and the clerk was instructed to correspond with the Sileby and other tire engine manu-
